To Whom It May Concern.

When someone takes the time to recount a positive experience, it speaks volumes. I have always felt that a testimonial is a powerful indicator of excellence. Therefore, I have much enthusiasm in writing this recommendation letter to Belapay, our merchant service.

We have been using Belapay to process all our electronic payment transactions for the past 6 months and I have been very satisfied with their performance. We were referred to them by a company that we work very closely with and highly trust. In the beginning I was very concerned about the transition process from our old merchant to Belapay but Mr. Nate Watson with Belapay held our hand through the entire process and continues to be hands on with anything we need. Nate is so easy to work with and always willing to take the time to discuss any question I throw his way. Their online portal is very user friendly and easy to operate. They do an excellent job and have saved us quite a bit of money.

I am happy to recommend them and look forward to our working relationship in the future.

Sincerely,

Shannon Page Brooks
